TEN-YEAR-OLD

LITTLE FELLOW FOLLOWS PLAN OF WRITING CHECKS AND GETS THE COIN.

LONG BEACH, Cal., July 15 .-George Webster, 10 years old, barefooted and freckle faced, was arrested here yesterday on a charge for forgery. The police say he admitted passing three forged checks for a total of $12 during the past

All bore the name of a Mrs. Miller of El Paso, Texas, from which city George came here. They were drawn on the First National bank of Long Beach. George had seen his mother sign checks, and had concluded to see if he cold not secure money in the same manner.

HERE AND THERE.

It is good news that comes from San Francisco that the pumping association has voted to proceed with the preliminary work for a new and additional pumping plant. It means going forward for the Comstock, and, we believe, greater ablevements in ore producing line.

Government investigation reveal that the high cost of living is no myth, or an invention of the muckraker's pen. It has been found that the wholesale price of 257 commodities during 1910 were 4 per cent highest than in 1909 and 1.6 above the average of 1907, the year of highest prices since 1890.
